Kate Bond Middle School Moves To Booktracks

Kate Bond Middle School in Memphis, Tennessee has migrated to Booktracks.

“The purpose of Kate Bond Middle School is to provide a rigorous academic program designed to accelerate learning for all students. Because effort, preparedness, and self-direction are characteristics exhibited by successful learners, each day our students are encouraged to challenge themselves academically.”

The addition of Booktracks will assist the administrative staff and teachers in the management of their textbooks and equipment. Students will be held accountable for the textbooks, and teachers will be able to notify parents of the cost of lost textbooks when using Booktracks. eReaders and other equipment can be inventoried and circulated within Booktracks.
